BERRY TEMPLE METHODIST CHURCH

A BRIEF HISTORY OF BERRY TEMPLE METHODIST CHURCH

"Shortly after Allen School was established in 1887, Miss Alsie B. Dole, Superintendent, realized the need for religious training and started a Sunday School which later developed into a Methodist Episcopal Church; and for 18 years the congregation worshipped in the school chapel. During this time the following ministers served as pastors: Brothers George Ratcliff, W. W. Pope, M. M. Jones, George Morehead, H. L. Ashe, Albert Cottingham, Samuel McDonald, and N. D. Shamborguer.

While Brother M. M. Jones was pastor, a lot was purchased on Hill Street and later this lot was exchanged for the present site on College Street. The first church building was erected in 1904, being named Berry Temple for Bishop Berry.

Among the ministers who have served since the church was erected were these: Brothers W. R. Ziegler, C. K. Brown, J. A. Baxter, A. J. Jenkins, J. P. Morris, S. A. Peeler, Nathaniel Martin, G. Haven Caldwell, J. E. Brower, and the present pastor, L. A. Brown.

The old building was condemned in 1950 and through the able leadership of Brother Brown, the present beautiful edifice was completed for the opening service on April 26, 1953."

Through the efforts of the founders, pastors and members Berry Temple has contributed much to the North Carolina Conference, a contribution that will always stand for the building of the Kingdom of God in the hearts of all mankind.

Erection of Berry Temple Methodist Church)

REPORT OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT WESTERN DISTRICT

Bishop Love, fellow Superintendents, officers, pastors, laymen, and visitors, of the North Carolina Conference Central Jurisdiction, it is with deep gratitude that I stand before you to make this, my fifth annual report. Many and varied have been my experiences this Conference year, but the guidance of our most efficient and understanding Bishop, and above all, the grace of God have enabled us to carry on in this program of Kingdom building. We are endeavoring to unite the churches of the Western District in a stronger band of brotherhood and concerted Christian activities.

Though there have been, and still are numerous discouragements, our zeal for service has not diminished; rather does it grow stronger as we realize the great task that confronts us and the deep need of knowledge as to means and ways of meeting these conditions and acquiring the much needed arts that make for successful and convincing religious contacts.

Much has been accomplished, but as we look back upon the success of past years and reflect our achievements, we are ready to acknowledge that it has all been through the kindness of our Heavenly Father, and because of the "magnificent obsession" for service of those we are leading.

The efforts and accomplishments cannot be revealed in the limited confines of this report, so great have they been. The following are but the highlights of what has been achieved.

THE CHARGES

BERRY TEMPLE, Asheville, N. C., under the leadership of Rev. L. A. Brown is carrying on in a fine way. All financial obligations have been met, the Pastor's salary increased, and the parsonage completely renovated. A fine spirit of cooperation exists on the charge.

CATAWBA CIRCUIT—Rev. T. D. McCorkle reports progress at each church on the charge. Mt. Beulah has cleared the local indebtedness and is now meeting its financial obligation to the board of Missions and Church Extension. Brown's Chapel has been renovated inside, and plans have been made to brick veneer the church on the outside. Motz's Grove is making plans for a new building. Providence has been able to reach the community with its program, and thus enrich the spiritual growth.

LINCOLNTON CIRCUIT—Rev. C. O. Hill has labored faithfully with each congregation on his charge. Hinton Chapel has been able to reduce its indebtedness. Cherryville is planning to build in the near future. Bethel is working on an improvement program also. Tuckers shows promise of future growth this is evidenced by the interest shown by the present officials and young adults of the church.

LOWESVILLE CIRCUIT—Rev. A. W. Stowe can always be counted on to do a good job. Caldwell Chapel has promptly met all its financial obligations. Rock Hill is making definite plans to build. St. James has purchased additional land. Ebenezer has completed and is now worshipping in a beautiful concrete block church, which has caused the church to take on new life.

MT. HOLLY CIRCUIT—Rev. B. J. Dula is doing a good job. Mt. Pleasant is showing some evidence of growth. Hunters Chapel has met their financial obligations. Mt. Holly has enlarged the church building and is planning to brick veneer the exterior of the church.

FOREST CITY—Rev. R. B. McRae and his hard working congregation at Wells Springs have given status to the charge by building a beautiful modern parsonage, renovating the interior of the church, installing a new altar, and other improvements. March 20, 1954, an impressive dedication service was led by Bishop E. A. Love.

GASTONIA—Under the excellent leadership of Rev. J. T. Jones, Epworth is going ahead. They are gradually liquidating their indebtedness. The program of the church is meeting a felt community need in the community, through the efforts of the pastor and his hard-working wife.

FRANKLIN—This small congregation and their pastor, Rev. Oscar Davenport, are to be commended for their efforts at Kingdom building, and their attempts to carry on the program of the church.

KINGS MOUNTAIN—Rev. J. L. Alford and his good people can be counted on to meet their obligations. Kelly's Chapel, Galilee, and St. Paul are growing financially and best of all, spiritually.

MOORESVILLE CIRCUIT—Rev. G. W. Petterson is still working hard on the Mooresville Circuit. St. Paul has been completely renovated. Morrows Chapel has purchased additional land, and is almost ready to begin construction on a new brick church. Mt. Mourne and Stewards Chapel are carrying on.

HICKORY—Hartzell cannot be spoken of too highly for their continued growth, which in a large part may be attributed to the interest and efforts of the pastor, Rev. R. D. Sharpe, and his fine wife, Mrs. Sharpe. All financial obligations were paid at the first district meeting after the conference. A new church is under construction at Conover, N. C.

LENOIR—Rev. S. L. Townsend can be counted on to carry on a program that affords rich religious experiences for those who participate in it. Smith Memorial, Green Hill, Buffalo, are all meeting their obligations, both local and conference.

MARION—Rev. W. R. Royster and his fine people are continuing to grow. The interior of the church has been painted, a choir room built, and a new Hammond organ installed. All claims have been paid in full.

NEWTON AND GRANITE—Too much praise cannot be given our Ambassador of Goodwill, Rev. B. L. Burge, for the fine job of Kingdom building that is being done on this charge, and the exceptional human relations program that is being carried on. They are also prompt in meeting their financial obligations.

SHELBY CIRCUIT—Rev. C. E. Strickland, our pastor on this charge, is to be highly commended for the fine work that is being carried on. Durham Chapel is growing, both numerically and spiritually. A substantial increase in pastor's salary has been made. Brooks Chapel is still holding its own. Philadelphia is a striking example of what can be done by a conscientious, hard working rural congregation. A beautiful brick church has been built, an open chancel and education department included. This charge has moved out in front on the district.

WEST ASHEVILLE—Rev. S. F. Ferguson is our pastor at Wilson Temple. The church has shown some progress both financially and spiritually under his leadership.

STATESVILLE CHARGE—Rev. J. W. Ferree is still carrying on in a fine way on the Statesville charge. The church at Philadelphia has been painted inside and out. Plans were made in the third quarterly conference to build an educational department to the church. Scotts Chapel was host to the Youth Emphasis Conference promotional meeting March 22, 1954.

They are hoping to build soon. The parsonage has been painted and repaired.

UNION MILLS—Rev. Bowman and his little congregation are doing a fine job of Kingdom building.

MOORESBO—Rev. George Hardy and the people at Mooresboro have made some progress this year.

WILKESBORO CIRCUIT—Rev. C. W. Bailey will meet all obligations in full. Harpers is planning to build a new church in the near future. Boone is in the process of remodeling. St. Home gives promise of future growth. This was revealed in a recent survey.

THE DISTRICT CONFERENCE AND LEADERSHIP TRAINING SCHOOL

The Shelby Charge was untiring in their efforts to make the meeting at Durham Chapel one of the greatest in the history of the district. Attendance and interest remained high throughout the meeting. Courses were chosen to meet the needs of each department of the local church:

1. For Youth—"The Five Program Areas of the Youth Emphasis."
2. For Women—"An Approved Study Course, Jeremiah."
3. For Pastors and Laymen—"The Doctrine and Discipline of the Methodist Church." (Workshop)

YOUTH EMPHASIS CONFERENCE

Ministers, Youth, Workers with youth, Church School teachers, Superintendents, and interested laymen on the Winston and Western Districts journeyed to Statesville, N. C., March 22, 1954, to be led in a study of the Youth program of our church by our Conference Executive Secretary of Education, Rev. James McCallum. We can best evaluate this meeting by giving the reaction of the Laymen in attendance. "Did not our hearts burn within us while our own Bishop Edgar A. Love ate with us, listened to our problems, gave wise counsel, and showed sympathy for the job we are trying to do." Such was the sentiment of more than three hundred who were present at this meeting.

EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN

An important question which every Christian should face in all honesty is, "What Am I Doing to Spread the Gospel of Christ?" From April 19-24th this challenge was squarely met by Rev. S. L. Townsend, Rev. A. W. Stowe, Rev. R. D. Sharpe, Rev. C. W. Bailey, Rev. J. T. Jones, and Rev. W. R. Royster, who joined us in a preaching mission. Services were rendered at Wilkesboro, Gastonia, Lenoir, Marion, and on the Lowesville Charge. These ministers and others are answering the question by personally proclaiming the gospel in their own lives, and diligently teaching it to others.

AFTER EASTER ROLL CALL

Ministers and Young Adults met at Burge's Chapel, Granite Falls, for the After Easter Roll Call and a Young Adult meeting with the District Young Adult Leader, Rev. J. T. Jones, in charge. He was assisted by Rev. James McCallum, Secretary of Education. Rev. McCallum has given much help and inspiration to the program of Education on the district this year, for which we are grateful. At this meeting two young men were granted local preachers licenses, Marvin Walden and Robert H. McDowell.

CONFERENCE ON MISSIONS

Dr. Charles Golden was director of a Conference on Missions for the North Carolina and Tennessee Conference at Berry Temple Church, Asheville, N. C., March 17-18, 1954. Missions were viewed in a new light by all present.

METHODIST MEN

We pause here to pay tribute to the great job that is being done by the Laymen on the district. Many of their projects made possible the glowing building reports from the charges. Brother Ray Caviness is District Lay Leader.

WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE

The women of the district are carrying on in a fine way. They were represented at the Fourth Assembly of the Woman's Division of Christian Service at Malwaukee, Wis., by the District President, Mrs. Mary N. Morrison.

MINISTERS' WIVES

Last but not least we pay tribute to our Ministers' wives. They not only respond to the conference project for retired ministers, but they graciously serve as First Ladies of our parsonages; they hold places of leadership in the local church, and in a few cases they are finding time to raise sons, which we hope will be our future ministers.

In conclusion, let us not forget the questions of grave importance that we face today. God grant that as Christian leaders we may be guided aright in our thinking and actions. Let us pray for wisdom and strength that we may be able to help those we lead to see clearly, decide wisely, and live daily with God.

No service in itself is small
None great though earth it fill
But that is small that seeks its own
And great that seeks God's will.

Respectfully submitted,

W. J. Cameron

Western District, North Carolina Conference

GREENSBORO DISTRICT

Bishop Love, members of the Annual Conference and friends:

I shall begin my report with a word of appreciation to the ministers and members of the Greensboro District who have gone through the year with both heart and hand seeking to know and do the will of our Father.

Our ranks have been broken this year through the on going of the Reverends J. W. Hall, D. L. Thomas, P. I. Wells, and R. J. Shipp. Each of these men was unique in his contributions to the District and to the Conference and their demise is a great loss to the brotherhood as well as to the devoted members of their respective families.

As we have gone forth during this conference year our first concern has been to acquaint ourselves more fully with our Lord in order that we might more successfully make Him known to others.

With deep concern we have sought to know and follow the program of the Church. In my report I will only mention those areas to which we have directed our special attention.

YOUTH WORK

It is through your leadership, Bishop Love, that we have been greatly encouraged to place additional attention on the youth program. Your visit to our district, along with the District Staff, Reverend James E. McCallum, Rev. J. W. Gwyn, Miss Gwendolyn Gidney and Mrs. Dorothy Jones, will not soon be forgotten. We look forward to a similar meeting soon, when more time can be given to fellowship and study.

With renewed effort we have followed through this year with prayer and consecrated endeavor to help our youth "discover the will of God and live by it."

EVANGELISM

The work of evangelism has been given a major portion of our time with telling results. Pastors have organized and made use of the various commissions. In our preaching mission, where probably most of our effective evangelistic work was done, we had the unstinted support of the commissions. The following ministers, with their commission members, took active parts in the preaching mission: Reverend S. Eugene Black, I. A. Friend, I. G. Simpson, R. W. Winchester, F. D. Morehead and J. E. Brower; these men led on by the Conference workers, Reverends R. F. McCallum, R. C. Sharpe, Beverly Brown and W. E. Hairston, were successful in adding to the Kingdom our greatest number of souls for the year.

It is probably needless to say, that wherever there are conversions and reclaims there is a general revival of interest. We are far from being satisfied, however, with the total work of evangelism on the district. We still have churches whose reports show no conversions nor reclaims for the year and to me the most appalling thing about this situation is that both minister and people are undisturbed by this omission.

For the District we have had two hundred and ten (210) conversions and two hundred and seventy (270) accessions.

MINISTERIAL SUPPORT

It is encouraging to note the willingness on the part of the people to increase the pastors' salaries, which in many instances are yet far too low. On the district we have only one church that pays beyond $3,500.00, three more than $2,500.00 and six in excess of $2,000.00. All of these charges can and should pay more another year.

BUILDING AND IMPROVEMENT

In building and improvement we have gone far beyond our highest expectations. The following is a listing of buildings and pastors leading the way:

A new Church in Durham—Rev. C. A. Barrett; New Church at St. Peters—Rev. R. M. Martin; and a new parsonage at Oxford—Rev. J. W. Gwynn.

Those remodeling:

St. James—Rev. W. N. Johnson; New Bethel—Rev. W. C. Napper, Summerfield—Rev. R. W. Winchester; Bass and Raleigh Cross Roads—Rev. Eugene Black.

In addition to this, the following pastors are raising money and securing plans to build and remodel:

Rev. C. L. Gidney—Raleigh; Rev. R. C. Sharpe—North Greensboro; Rev. T. C. Tarpley—Kernersville; Rev. J. E. Brower—St Matthews; Rev. W. N. Napper—St. Paul; and Rev. Douglas Moore—Ramseur.

In discussing our building program for the district, you should also be cognizant of the satisfaction we have in those charges which borrowed money from the Board to build, and a recent report from the Board showing that they are meeting their payments as they come due. They are: Rev. W. T. Lomax—Garretts Grove; Rev. Clinton Armstrong—Browning Chapel; Rev. J. W. Shuford—S. Greensboro; Rev. W. E. Hairston—Union Memorial; and Rev. W. R. Walls—Laughlin Memorial.

SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES

Bennett College, located within the bounds of the Greensboro District, moves forward under the able and dynamic leadership of its president, Dr. David D. Jones. An indication of its growth and influence can be partially seen in the distinct honor which has come to the president through one of the new City School buildings being named in his honor and his election to the City School Board of Education. At no time does Bennett fail to cooperate in every way possible with the total program of the Church.

Gammon Theological Seminary and Allen Home not within the bounds of the Greensboro District, do receive and will continue to receive our support in every way. I think our reports will show an increase each year in our support.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATIONS

We have had this year, as in previous years, cooperation from various district organizations in working and acquainting us with the total program of the Church. Delegates were sent by the W.S.C.S. led by Miss Ada Tonkins and the Methodist Men led by Mr. C. M. Winchester, to the Convocation meeting, held in Philadelphia last July and to the Urban Life Conference held in Columbus, Ohio. Leaders sent to these meetings have evidenced their help by them through their glowing reports and revival of interest.

The Ministers' wives of the Greensboro District working together with the wife of the District Superintendent look forward with anticipation to cooperating with the plans for increasing our pension.

We believe that our Conference should adopt and actively support the new pension plan.

Before closing my report I must add our approval of the changes made in the Central Christian Advocate, which now takes its rightful place in the Advocate family. We have placed the Central Advocate and the Baltimore Area Messenger on our list to be read by each minister and each family on the district.

As in previous years I shall include in this report our major financial askings, as received of this date.

World Service and Conference Benevolence	$ 6,000.00
Conference Journals	183.50
Conference Claimants	3,952.00
Episcopal Fund	609.00
General and Jurisdictional Administration Fund	358.00

GRAND TOTAL $14,143.50

WINSTON DISTRICT

Bishop Love, Members and Friends of the North Carolina Annual Conference:

It is with a deep sense of grateful humility that I stand to give this report; for I count this a real honor and a great privilege given me in making this, my third, annual report to this great annual conference as district superintendent. God has blessed our work with much success throughout the district. We now pay special tribute to the many pastors, their wives and a host of consecrated laymen of the Winston District for their cooperative service and contributions to our God and the great church.

DISTRICT GROUP MEETINGS

We held several group meetings on the district this year; at which time the ministers and laymen came together to plan the work of the district.

YOUTH INSTITUTE

In August, our District Youth Institute assembled at Saint John Church in Thomasville, North Carolina, with Rev. R. F. McCallum as host pastor where we received the best of entertainment. Under the efficient leadership of our Conference Executive Secretary, Rev. J. E. McCallum and Rev. G. A. Brooks, dean, together with a very efficient staff of voluntary workers, the institute was accredited by the General Board of Education of the Methodist Church. It was also our privilege to have two exchange students from the North Carolina Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction.

CHOIR WORKSHOP

In the month of November Dr. D. L. Ridout, our Area Secretary, conducted a Workshop for the choirs of the district. This school did much to improve the quality of work done by the many choirs and pastors in attendance. Our District Conference expressed the hope that a Choir Workshop can be held again this year.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE

On May 1, 1954, we held a one-day district conference at our new Hoover Chapel Church at Thomasville, North Carolina, with Rev. J. W. Jones as host pastor. The pastor and members of this church gave us the best of entertainment. The attendance at this conference was very good. The reports from each department of the church showed outstanding progress. The Woman's Society of Christian Service has made real progress in each phase of its work under the leadership of Mrs. Sophia East, as president.

Under the leadership of Atty. R. C. Erwin, district lay leader, the laymen of the district are making a study of the church. This much has been accomplished with the Board of Lay Activities.

EVANGELISM

We have stressed "visitation evangelism" in each charge, with much concern given to the Youth Emphasis in the Church School. Our pastors' reports will show that many souls have been added to the church as the result of our evangelistic efforts.

We are now in the position to organize a new church at Salisbury, North Carolina. We hope to be able to organize a new church in Martinsville, Va., in the month of August.

FINANCIAL STATUS

Our report as given by our Conference Treasurer will show some outstanding gains in most of our claims. Please note the increase in Conference Claims, etc.

Phillips has done a very excellent job and has raised this charge to one of the best in the conference. The church at Walnut Cove is being remodeled to a very modern church.

Saints Home, M. S. Laughlin, pastor:

Under the leadership of Brother Laughlin, this church is taking on renewed vigor. It has taken care of its indebtedness in a way that is very commendable. Several members are added to the church.

Saint Paul, W. C. L. Scarborough, pastor:

This church has had a very excellent year. Several members have been added. This church has purchased a new lot for future location.

And now, Bishop Love, we are so very happy to express our deepest and most sincere gratitude to you for your kind consideration, your wise counsel and brotherly love. May God's richest blessings forever shine upon you and your family.

Many thanks to you, our priestly ministers, and to our devoted laity for your very excellent support.

Respectfully submitted,

LAURINBURG DISTRICT

Bishop Love, ministers, delegates and friends of the 96th session of the North Carolina Annual Conference, through the providence of an Almighty God, I am privileged to bring to this conference my sixth and last report for the Laurinburg District. This is esteemed a great honor. I thank God for giving me health, strength and divine guidance to serve this district for six years, during which time our work on the district has been improving, growing and striving to become a better and larger district. I wish to speak my deepest appreciation for the fine spirit of cooperation given me by both ministers and laymen of the district. It is my sincere hope and heart's desire that God will continually use the Laurinburg District to greater service in building the Kingdom of God in the hearts of men and women.

EVANGELISM

I have often said and will repeat that evangelism is the major task of the Christian Church. When a church ceases to evangelize, there is nothing for that church to do but die. If a church stops winning children, men and women for Christ and the church, it will not be long before that church will close its doors. No change should ever cause the church to lose the passion to win souls for Christ. The church must bring to a lost world and to a lost people the vision of God in Christ Jesus. Jesus said to the Apostles to go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature, proclaim the good tidings, of Christ crucified and raised from the dead. This is the only message that will save this confused world. The Laurinburg District took a part in the Preaching Mission sponsored by Dr. Charles F. Golden, Jr., Associate Secretary of the Division of National Missions of the Methodist Church. We spent the entire week in Wilmington where we have a small mission church. Rev. R. F. McCallum, Chairman of the Conference Board of Evangelism, Rev. G. E. Hogue, the Pastor, Rev. E. C. Campbell and I made up the team that worked in Wilmington for one week. It seems that now is the opportune time to put forth our best efforts in our work in Wilmington. We contacted several good Methodist families who have been waiting long to see a Methodist Church in Wilmington. They are ready to come in and work with us and build a church, if we are ready. The field in Wilmington is white unto harvest. The reports from most all of the charges will show an increase in membership.

EDUCATION

In speaking of education we are referring in a large way to the training of our young people. We highly appreciate the very efficient work that is being done by Rev. J. E. McCallum, our Executive Secretary. Not only does he work with the youth of the church, but he meets with and organizes the young adults throughout the Conference. Our District Christian Worker's School was held again at Fayetteville Teachers College. Rev. Marshall McCallum, Dean of the school and his excellent staff, with an increased enrollment carried on a very fine Christian workers school. Our Youth Emphasis Conference, at which Bishop Love, you were present, was held in Laurinburg. This important meeting was of high calibre. Your presence and contribution meant much to the district. Both the youth and adults went away with a new vision.

BUILDING AND REMODELING

The General Conference of 1952 placed major emphasis on Church Extension. This is the Church Extension quadrennium. May I quote what I read from a little booklet entitled "For the Facing of This Hour:"

"The organizing of new congregations and the erecting of new church buildings is the order of today. Never has the mind of our church been more committed to Church Extension than at the present moment. To organize, to build, and to find capable leadership are the goals of every annual Conference."

More churches have been erected in the North Carolina Conference in recent years than in any other similar period of the Conference. I think I am correct when I say that the Greensboro and Winston Districts lead in the building of new churches, although the Western and Laurinburg Districts have made noticeable progress along this line. During the last six years, five new churches in the Laurinburg District have been completed, and one is nearing completion. Two annexes, one hut, and one parsonage have been built. Four other churches have started a building fund.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE

The Laurinburg District Conference held its session at Maxton, April 20-22. Rev. D. S. Harkness was host pastor. The fine attitude and hospitality of the host pastor and people made our stay in Maxton a pleasant one. Panel discussions were as follows:

"Commission on Christian Education."

"The Layman and Evangelism."

"Organization of the Local Church."

"Specialized Ministries of the Church," and

"World Peace."

The Conference closed with a very beautiful program presented by a group from Bennett College.

DISTRICT LAY ACTIVITIES

Under the leadership of Mr. Bruce Hargroves as District Lay Leader and his associate lay leaders, the men's work on the Laurinburg District has been very satisfactory. They have gone from church to church throughout the District promoting the program of our church. They meet together once every three months as a group to study the most successful ways to carry out the program of the local church. They have taken upon themselves this year to give two hundred dollars as a supplement to the Retired Fund. A very inspiring retreat meeting was held in Maxton, sponsored by Rev. D. S. Harkness and Rev. Marshall McCallum. Bishop W. W. Peele was a guest speaker. God's blessings upon the men of the Laurinburg district.

WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE

With ceaseless activity, and increasing efficiency, the W.S.C.S. is praying and toiling in almost an endless way of Kingdom Service. These women are not only worthy of much praise, but they are hard for the men to pass in spiritual, systematic and faithful service. They never falter; they neither fail. As a result of their determined efforts and with heartiest co-operation of the Society they meet quarterly to study how to do their work more efficiently.

MINISTERS' WIVES ASSOCIATION

Under the leadership of Mrs. B. M. Caldwell and her associates, the Retired Minister's Fund has not been neglected. They take great pride in doing their work, because they feel that the contributions they make to this worthy cause will bring joy and comfort to those who have given their best for the Master's cause. May I thank each and every one who has helped to increase this fund.

THE PASTORS AND THEIR CHARGES

Bolton and Wilmington, Rev. E. C. Campbell, pastor:

Our church at Bolton, with a membership of about 50 is carrying on as usual in a fine way. The church in Wilmington, with a membership of 26 is struggling hard, hoping that they may get help in the near future to build a new church. Wilmington is a city of 45,000 and quite a few Methodists live there. With aid coming from some source, I think Methodism will thrive again in Wilmington.

Bomora-Piney Grove, Rev. E. M. McLeod, pastor:

The people at Bomora began building a new church in January. By the first of April the church was completed and they moved in. This was done without any help from the Boards. It was done by sacrificial giving by this loyal group.

Charlotte-Boulware Chapel, Rev. S. H. Lockard, pastor:

This little church with a membership of about 15 has done exceedingly well. The church has been painted inside and outside.

Simpson Memorial, Rev. T. H. Wootten, pastor:

This charge has had another good year. The church has been painted on the inside, the kitchen has been renovated and running water installed. Several members have been added, and claims will be 100%.

Hoffman-Cool Springs, Rev. J. H. McCallum, pastor:

This charge paid their claims in full in December. They are raising money to build a new church at Cool Springs. This is the second time Rev. McCallum has been pastor of this charge.

Fayetteville, Rev. W. T. Brown, pastor:

Rev. Brown is successfully leading his people on to victory. A building fund is being raised, and a new church is on the way. His report will be in full. This is a forward-going church, and will soon be among the first.

Goldsboro, Rev. W. S. Beary, pastor:

This church has a small membership but does large things. Rev. Beary has spent over $4,000 in repairing and beautifying without any outside help. The church is free of debt. This is his fourth year and the people have asked for his return.

Hamlet, Rev. Marshall McCallum, pastor:

This is a well-organized church with a good pastor. He has done a splendid year's work, as his report will show. The membership is still growing and the future outlook for our church in Hamlet is good.

Hickory Bend-St. Mark, Rev. J. W. McRae, Sr., pastor:

A new church has been built at Hickory Bend. The pastor has worked very hard to serve this small congregation.

Beauty Spot, Rev. R. B. Rhyne, pastor:

A church was started here about three years ago, but progress has been slow. The work has been held up, though Rev. Rhyne is ready to start again, and hopes to finish it soon.

Laurinburg-Beaver Dam, Rev. G. E. Hogue, pastor:

Our church in Laurinburg is in serious need of repair. Rev. Hogue has proven himself to be the man of the hour, and has labored hard to save the situation. With the spending of several thousand dollars, I think that the church will then be safe.

Maxton, Rev. D. S. Harkness, pastor:

Under the leadership of Rev. Harkness, this church has had a fine year. This faithful pastor has worked hard to bring up a round report. The church is spiritually alive, and Rev. Harkness has a very constructive program for both youth and adults.

Lumberton, Rev. D. H. McLean, pastor:

This charge has gone forward by leaps and bounds under the skillful leadership of its pastor. The church and parsonage have been painted inside and outside. The parsonage has been installed with hot and cold water systems. A bus has been purchased to transport the people to and from the church, and all debts taken care of. The membership has increased. Rev. McLean will make a 100% report in everything. The church asked for his return.

Millers, Rev. John McEachin, pastor:

Penbroke, Rev. Huley Perry, pastor:

St. Peters, Rev. J. W. McRae, Jr., pastor:

Fairmont, Rev. W. M. Thompson, pastor:

These pastors have wrought well, and their reports are good.

Mt. Zion-New Zion, Rev. B. F. Gleaves, pastor:

This is a two point circuit. Rev. Gleaves has served this charge very successfully for eight or more years. He is a wide awake pastor, and his churches are spiritually alive.

Philadelphia, Rev. D. C. Skeens, pastor:

The church at Philadelphia under the wise leadership of Rev. Skeens has had one of its best years. Eighteen members have been taken into the church.

Red Springs, Rev. S. B. McBrayer, pastor:

Rev. McBrayer has everything well in hand and the church has had a very prosperous year. The parsonage has been remodeled, and all reports are good.

Rowland-Salem, Rev. J. F. Sawyer, pastor:

This charge has had a most excellent year. The charge is alive spiritually and also financially. Thirty-one members have been taken into the church. Rev. Sawyer will make a round report.

Sanford Circuit, Rev. E. A. Rush, pastor:

Unfortunately this pastor has been sick for more than a year. Rev. Davis has been serving as an assistant pastor. The charge has been well cared for, and his report will be in full. Rev. Rush has asked to be released. He has been a faithful, and successful pastor for about thirty years.

Johns Station, Rev. J. F. Bowden, pastor:

This is Rev. Bowden's first year at Johns. He has had a good year. The church has been underpinned and his report will be good.

CONCLUSION

This report would be incomplete if I did not say to you, Bishop Love, that I have been greatly inspired, and encouraged by your wise counsel and quick understanding of our problems. You have proven yourself to be the man of the hour by having a keen insight into all of the affairs of the North Carolina Conference. And to the pastors and laymen of the Laurinburg District, may I again say to you that I shall never forget your kindness and your devotion to the task assigned to you. With all of you I dedicate myself anew to the unfinished work of the kingdom. Wherever I am assigned, I will do my best by facing the future with hope and courage.

Respectfully submitted,

F. D. Caldwell, District Superintendent

HISTORICAL VIEW

From the organization of Methodism in America, the work in North Carolina was continued in Virginia and afterwards in the Virginia and South Carolina Conference. In the year 1836, the General Conference set up in North Carolina. Its first session opened as a part of the Virginia Conference, but when it adjourned, there were two Conferences.

Facts from the first ninety sessions are gleaned from the General Minutes from the Conference Journal for those years, which is now in custody of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

At the Conference of December 4, 1844, there were 10,495 white members and 3,100 colored. Without consulting the wisdom of the latter, nearly the whole membership became a part of a new church, organized in May, 1845, and called the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Some of the colored members entered the A.M.E. Church, some of the colored M.E. Church of America, but thousands turned gladly to the bosom of the old Methodist Episcopal Church as it returned to the State after the Civil War.

Between the years 1844, when the Church was separated over the slave question, and in 1865, when at the close of the War, the M.E. Church returned to shepherd its scattering flock in North Carolina, there was no session of the North Carolina Conference.

From the North Carolina Conference, the Blue Ridge was formed with twelve preachers, 2,839 members and probationers, and 41 church edifices.

ALLEN HIGH SCHOOL

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

(The following is a talk delivered by Miss Julia Titus, principal of the Allen High School, Asheville, N. C.)

Allen High School in Asheville, N. C., is maintained by the Woman's Division of Christian Service and is especially for the outstanding girls of North Carolina who wish to prepare themselves for places of leadership. We urge that the pastors of the Conference seek out a possible candidate in their church congregations and make it possible financially, through some organization in the church such as the WSCS, for this girl to get her high school education at Allen.

The school is accredited by the State of North Carolina and by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. The regular high school curriculum is offered, plus required courses in Religious Education and Home Economics. Grades Seven and Eight in preparation for high school are also a part of the school program. For those interested and especially gifted there are a school choir, dramatics, piano lessons, and a fine athletic program.

A new dormitory recently made possible by the Woman's Division makes a home for approximately 80 girls and 18 adults. A bi-racial staff of teachers and dormitory supervisors help to make the school program effective and expanding. Many of the staff members have travelled and worked in other countries and so the students are aided in broadening their horizons and are constantly being offered opportunities to prepare themselves for full time Christian Service. Through the program of the Woman's Division the missionaries and deaconesses serving in the school are allowed a sabbatical year and during this time may study or travel. The principal last year spent her sabbatical year in teaching in the Old Umtali Methodist Mission in Southern Rhodesia, Africa. This work, together with an explanation of the Allen High School program, was the subject of her address at the annual meeting of the North Carolina Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service held in Berry Temple during the conference session on Saturday night, June 5. By showing slides of the work of the mission she told of her work in teaching English and Algebra in the Secondary School and working with the boys and girls who are preparing themselves for teachers, for the ministry, or for nurses among their people. These opportunities for service in other countries and in the United States are presented to the Allen High School students as they are reaching their years of decision about their life work. More than fifty per cent of each graduating class go on to higher education, some attending Bennett College, Paine College, North Carolina College at Durham, and many others.

We urge the ministers and Woman's Society members of the North Carolina Conference to help us get the very finest girls at Allen. This is your school, within the bounds of your Conference, and the majority of the Allen girls should be Methodist girls from this conference. Information about regulations and expenses may be obtained by writing to the superintendent of Allen High School.

Report approved by the North Carolina Conference at its Ninety-sixth Session, Berry Temple Methodist Church, Asheville, North Carolina, entertaining, June 2nd through June 6, 1954.

CONFERENCE LAY LEADER

Bishop Love, District Superintendents, Ministers, Delegates and Christian Friends:

I am grateful to God for His protection during this conference year to enable me to be here to make my report to the ninety-sixth session of the North Carolina Annual Conference, on my activities throughout the Conference.

Mr. Robert G. Mayfield, Executive Secretary of the General Board of Lay Activities, called a meeting of Conference Lay Leaders at Clark College, Atlanta, Georgia, on February 7, 1954, to outline the General Board's program for this quadriennium. I attended the meeting and returned home filled with inspiration and a determination to contribute my time, talent and possessions to the best of my ability to help effectuate the General Board's program. The major emphasis at the meeting was on Stewardship of Possessions, with the Tithe as Methodism's Minimum Standard of Giving. Bishop Costen J. Harrell's book on "Stewardship and the Tithe," was used to guide the discussions. I am asking all Methodist Men's Clubs to purchase Bishop Costen's book and plan study group meetings to become familiar with the program of "Stewardship and the Tithe."

Since the Atlanta meeting I have visited two Methodist Men's Clubs to explain and discuss with them the General Board Program and encourage active participation in the work of Lay Activities.

The North Carolina Board of Lay Activities has outlined the following program for this conference year.

Aims and Objectives of Conference Board for 1954-1955:

1. To deepen the spiritual lives of the Lay Membership in every local church.
2. To practice Christian fellowship in all human relationships.
3. Christianize personal and community life.
4. To study and become familiar with the Methodist Church, its organizations and its doctrines.
5. Cooperate with the Bishop and district superintendents and pastors in the total program of the Methodist Church.
 - (a) Cooperate with the Bishop and correlate the work of the Conference Board of Lay Activities with all other agencies and commissions within the Conference.
 - (b) Cooperate with district superintendents in meeting the assessments assessed by the Bishop and General Church.
 - (c) Assist the pastor in raising all apportionments.
6. Adequate support of the ministry.
7. Encourage ministers and laymen to cooperate with Agricultural and other agencies working for the spiritual, social, economical and educational betterment of our rural population.

Goals for 1954-1955:

1. A minimum of two meetings of the Conference Board of Lay Activities.
2. One Layman's Retreat planned and conducted by the Conference Board of Lay Activities.
3. Each District Board of Lay Activities observe an annual Layman's Day anniversary.
4. A correct list of names and addresses of church and charge lay leaders.
5. Have all Methodist Men's Clubs change to the new plan adopted by the General Board of Lay Activities by renewing the charter annually.
6. Organize and charter a minimum of five new Methodist Men's Clubs on each district.
7. Obtain fifteen new subscriptions to the Methodist Layman on each district.
8. Place the Christian Advocate in every Methodist home.
9. Plan observance of Layman's Day in all churches, using the theme suggested by the General Board.
10. Encourage all church and charge Lay Leaders and officers of the Methodist Men's Clubs to tithe.

The Conference Board of Lay Activities is very grateful to the District Superintendents, Ministers, District Lay Leaders and Associate District Lay Leaders and laymen throughout the conference for their cooperation during this quadriennium.

The Conference goal of Methodist Men's Clubs to be chartered by the 1956 General Conference was twenty-eight. The North Carolina Conference Board of Lay Activities has exceeded its quota.

The area of our work that should be strengthened, is having our clubs renew their charters annually. When we return to our local churches, may we work diligently to strengthen the lay activities program.

Finally, I take this opportunity to thank the Conference Board for counsel and encouragement; the ministers and laymen for their deep and warm fellowship and support to achieve our attainments.

May we continue to work and pray for the advancement of Christ and His Church.

Respectfully submitted,
Alvin L. Morrison
Conference Lay Leader

BOARD OF TEMPERANCE

We recognize the fact that the liquor traffic continues to be a difficult problem. The Methodist Church shall never compromise with this evil. It is dedicated to the principle that this evil must be eradicated and that this can only be done through a process of slow, careful education, a process designed to reveal more fully the terrible effect of alcohol upon the individual, both spiritually and physically.

Education for temperance must begin in the local church. A heavy responsibility rests upon every pastor, every Sunday School teacher, and every church official to continue in this fight to save our youth and adults from this great evil.

The General Board of Temperance to which our Conference Board holds a disciplinary relationship is located in Washington, D. C. It carries forward an extensive educational work, producing a great deal of educational material adapted to leadership and age groups, as well as publishing "The Voice" which is received by our pastors and others. Those responsible for our conference program of temperance in the local churches should avail themselves fully of this material.

The church's program in this regard should be well planned and realistic. The home, church, school, and community have a great responsibility to our youth. We view with increased alarm the ever increasing consumption of liquor in America with all its attendant evils and the vast advertising program to popularize drinking among all classes of people.

We realize that amid the confused moral judgments of our age, drinking is no longer considered a social, moral, or religious problem by many people. We are aware of the increased economic burden which the liquor traffic is placing upon the public in the care of alcoholics in clinics, hospitals, asylums, and jails, and feel that this expense should not be placed upon an already heavily taxed public.

Your Board makes the following recommendations that we might continue the fight for total abstinence in this conference.

1. That each local church within the conference name an active committee on temperance to encourage total abstinence education in the local church congregation.
2. That each church be requested to dedicate at least one service every year to the cause of abstinence.
3. That the Board of Education of the church cooperate to the fullest extent with the Board of Temperance in this program of education concerning the evils of the liquor traffic.
4. That every pastor will cooperate with the plan of the General Board in the observance of Commitment Day.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON WORLD PEACE

Introduction: Bishop Love and members of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Central Jurisdiction of the Methodist Church, as your Committee on World Peace makes its annual report in this year of our Lord, 1954, it is aware that there is still a deep conflict between the East led by the Russian bloc and the West led by the American bloc.

There is a deep struggle for the minds of men. Dr. Joseph L. Hromadka, Professor of Systematic Theology on the John Huss Theological faculty at the University of Prague in Czechoslovakia, writing in the book Man's Disorder and God's Design, says, "We are living in the midst of an international revolution unsurpassed in human history. If we are scared by the very word 'revolution' we had better get re-adjusted to it lest we fail to cope with the abysmal problems pressing us to the wall!"

The Peaceful Use of Atomic Energy—We urge our government to use its influence to the end that atomic energy may be used to serve the cause of peace instead of war. Atomic energy could be applied to such peaceful activities as agriculture, medicine, and for the production of electrical power on a large scale.

We commend President Eisenhower for the great address last December before the United Nations on the peaceful uses of atomic energy.

PEACE AND THE RACE ISSUE—We are aware that the communists have been using the fact of segregation in America as one of their chief propaganda weapons. This has been especially true in Asia and Africa. In its decision outlawing segregation in the public schools, the Supreme Court struck a mighty blow at communism.

In its recent General Assembly at Montreat, North Carolina, the Presbyterian Church in the United States voted to abolish segregation within its fellowship.

We commend the Presbyterian Church in the United States for taking this stand to practice real Christian brotherhood. This, too, represents a blow to the march of communism.

COMMUNISM AND CAPITALISM AND WORLD PEACE—In 1948 a book was prepared under the auspices of the World Council of Churches. The title of this book is Man's Disorder and God's Design. In Section III there is an excellent appraisal of the ideologies of communism and capitalism. We quote the following excerpts from this statement:

"Christians should ask why communism in its modern totalitarian form makes so strong an appeal to great masses of people in many parts of the world. They should recognize the hand of God in the revolt of multitudes against injustice that gives communism much of its strength. They should seek to recapture for the Church the original Christian solidarity with the world's distressed people, not to curb their aspirations towards justice, but, on the contrary, to go beyond them and direct them towards the only road which does not lead to a blank wall, obedience to God's will and His justice. Christians should realize that for many, especially for many young men and women, communism seems to stand for a vision of human equality and universal brotherhood for which they were prepared by Christian influences. Christians who are beneficiaries of capitalism should try to see the world as it appears to many who know themselves excluded from its privileges and who see in communism a means of deliverance from poverty and insecurity. All should understand that the proclamation of racial equality by communists and their support of the cause of colonial peoples makes a strong appeal to the populations of Asia and Africa and to racial minorities elsewhere. It is a great human tragedy that so much that is good in the motives and aspirations of many communists and of those whose sympathies they win has been transformed into a force that engenders new forms of injustice and oppression, and that what is true in communist criticism should be used to give convincing power to untrustworthy propaganda.

"Christians should recognize with contrition that many churches are involved in the forms of economic injustices and racial discrimination which have created the conditions favorable to the growth of communism, and that the atheism and the anti-religious teaching of communism are in part a reaction to the chequered record of a professedly Christian society. It is one of the most fateful facts in modern history that often the working classes, including tenant farmers, came to believe that the churches were against them or indifferent to their plight. Christians should realize that the Church has often failed to offer to its youth the appeal that can evoke a disciplined, purposeful and sacrificial response, and that in this respect communism has for many filled a moral and psychological vacuum.

"The Christian churches should reject the ideologies of both communism and laissez-faire capitalism, and should seek to draw men away from the false assumption that these extremes are the only alternatives. Each has made promises which it could not redeem. Communist ideology puts the emphasis upon economic justice, and promises that freedom will come automatically after the completion of the revolution. Capitalism puts the emphasis upon freedom, and promises that justice will follow as a by-product of free enterprise; that, too, is an ideology which has been proved false. It is the responsibility of Christians to seek new, creative solutions which never allow either justice or freedom to destroy the other."

INDO-CHINA—We see the situation in Indo-China as a possible threat to world peace. The forces and factors responsible for the conditions in Indo-China are indeed complex. We feel that much of what is happening in Indo-China today is a result of past social sin, French imperialism.

We feel that the French were wrong and unwise in not granting complete independence to these people as did the British to India and Burma and the Dutch to Indonesia.

We feel that France's blocking in the U. N. of a discussion on Indo-China on the grounds that this was encroachment on her sovereignty was not in the best interest of peace in Indo-China.

Therefore, we see the following steps as important ones to take:

1. Immediate independence for Indo-China.
2. An immediate cease fire.
3. The supervision of a cease fire by the U. N. and that a supervision of such a truce would be under the jurisdiction of a new built team.
4. The admission of the three states to the U. N.

It is our desire for America to champion those who want their freedom.

The entrance of American troops into Indo-China has many serious limitations. The first limitation is that war will not solve the problems involved in Indo-China. Our entrance into such a war would be construed by Asia as supporting colonialism and we hasten to add that in this instance would certainly be the case.

With the entrance of American troops into this war there is the possibility that we might provoke Red China and Russia to come into the war, thus setting the stage for a third and possibly a final world war.

Therefore we call upon our country to work out a policy on Indo-China that does not have war as an alternative and which calls for the independence of that country.

THE UNITED NATIONS—In spite of its shortcomings, the United Nations has some notable achievements on its record. The following are some of its accomplishments:

1. Through the influence of the United Nations, Russia withdrew her troops from Iran and this, in turn, averted another major war or perhaps another world war.
2. Through the mediation of the United Nations war between Holland and Indonesia over Indonesian independence was averted and today Indonesia is an independent nation with membership in the United Nations.
3. It was through the United Nations that a truce was arranged between the Jews and Arabs. As a result, peace was preserved not only in Palestine, but in the rest of the world.
4. Through the United Nations a major war between India and Pakistan over Kashmir has been prevented.

The United Nations has accomplished many other notable things, but time and space will not allow us to mention them here.

RECOMMENDATIONS: We wish to make the following recommendations:

1. We recommend that our Conference Committee on World Peace be changed to Conference Board of World Peace. This would be in line with the General Board of World Peace which was created by the last General Conference.
2. We recommend the setting up of District Committees on World Peace and the appointment of District Secretaries of World Peace.
3. We urge that there be set up local church committees on World Peace.
4. We further recommend that each local church committee make use of the excellent literature distributed by the General Board of World Peace at 740 Rush Street, Chicago 11, Illinois.
5. This fall the Council of Bishops will lead a Crusade for World Order. We urge that the ministers and laymen of our conference give their whole-hearted support to this Crusade. (Our own Bishop Love is a member of the Committee on the Crusade for World Order of the Council of Bishops.)

CONCLUSION—Let us face the future with confidence, for God has not abdicated His throne. He is still the ruler of this universe. He is still the God of history. And the ultimate outcome of these days is in His hands.

In her book, The Healing Light, Mrs. Agnes Sanford says, "Let us be still and know that He is God. He is from everlasting to everlasting, He changeth not. This little world could be rolled up like a scroll and taken away and He would still be God, with the power within Himself to evolve another world or another universe if He should so desire."

THE COMMISSION ON WORSHIP AND THE FINE ARTS

The Commission on Worship and the Fine Arts which met with Dr. D. L. Ridout yesterday, June 4, offers the following suggestions to the conference:

1. That this commission be given permission to supervise and conduct the worship services in the annual conference.
2. That each district appoint a person who will be responsible for the worship services in the district meetings. This person, approved by the district superintendent, will work cooperatively with the commission.

A PROGRAM OF STEWARDSHIP FOR THE BALTIMORE AREA

A program of Stewardship education was authorized by the 1952 General Conference of the Methodist Church, and has been planned by the Joint Stewardship Council of the church. The Council of Bishops having endorsed the planned program, the following is suggested as a program of Stewardship for the Baltimore area:

1. That the resident bishop of the area appoint an area Director of Stewardship. (This has been done.)
2. That each Annual Conference in the area elect a Conference Director of Stewardship, on nomination of the cabinet thereof. (This has been done in the Delaware and Washington Conferences.)
3. That a District Director of Stewardship be elected at each Annual Conference session for each District in the respective conferences, these to be preferably laymen, to be nominated also by the cabinet. (This has been done in the Delaware and Washington Conferences.)

After these elections are effected, the Area Director will brief the Conference and District Directors on the program of Stewardship education, and it is hoped that before the end of the current conference year, a church director of Stewardship will be elected in each local church.

It is hoped that by 1960, all the people called Methodists will have become tithers, thus insuring adequate support for our churches, and enabling Methodism to do more fully its share in bringing in the Kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ. It is the ultimate aim of the program that Christian people will regard tithing as a means of Grace.

Daniel Lyman Ridout, Area Director

COMMITTEE ON ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL RELATIONS

We, the members of the above named committee submit our report as follows:

After viewing the unchristian conditions in our society and the world at large, we are keenly aware of the necessity of our seeking the will of God in all our social and economic relationships. We are convinced that human relationships will improve when we, the whole human family order our lives in contemplation of God's will.

THE PRESENT THREAT TO OUR FREEDOM

A very casual observation of the behavior and methodology of the investigation committees in Congress show a complete lack of anything that approximated the Christian ethic; the principles of democracy are also lacking. The smear campaigns, the release and use of unverified information, the guilt by association that has been the practice of the investigation committees, which committees claim to be ridding our government of communism represents a threat to our basic freedom. It is a fact that there have been and doubtless still are, communists in our government and other strategic points in our nation. It is a fact that the communists movement is opposed to and sets itself against life as we know it. But it is also a fact that the practices of those who claim to be fighting for our freedom in ridding our nation of communism in their methods of so doing represent a threat to our freedom. The extreme right is as totalitarian and unchristian as the extreme left. Fascism and communism crush human personality. We call for Christianity and democracy to prevail in weeding out communism or any other threat to personal liberty.

A CHALLENGE TO THE CHURCH IN LIGHT OF THE RECENT SUPREME COURT DECISION

The decision handed down by the Supreme Court on May 17th presents a serious challenge to the Christian church. The church is the agency through which the kingdom of God must come, but present events reveal that the church is lagging in this respect. The state has declared her position on segregation in public schools, housing, and public recreational facilities. We call upon the church to make her position known.

We believe that the church should be concerned about all forces that affect the people under her care. There is no area of the communities' life that does not come under the scrutinizing eye of the church. We reject the idea that the political economic sphere is independent of the religious sphere.

In the realm of our economic order, we note that our economy is geared to that of making war that we have been unable to provide full employment in our country, unless there is the threat of war or the actual participation in war, we feel that it is imperative that the church call upon business, governmental, labor and labor leaders to plan and develop an economy that does not have to thrive on the evil fruits of war.

In that we believe all men have a right to work and that this right to a job is laid down in the order of creation, we feel that it is extremely important that steps be taken now to avoid a possible depression.

In this hour when nations are struggling for the minds and loyalties of men, it is imperative and urgent that the church make her position known. In that the gospel of our Lord does not exalt any political or economic systems, it is mandatory that the church point out to materialistic capitalism and materialistic communism as any other systems, that the church bring all systems the judgment of God and seek to transform and redeem our systems in the light of her Savior.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE AND MIGRANT LABOR

Whereas there are such loopholes in the North Carolina Public School attendance law . . . whereby children in certain agricultural areas cannot be compelled to attend school during the harvesting season, we the committee on Social and Economic Relations recommend that the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church try in some measure to work with the State to change such a law thereby giving every child the same chance, thus cutting down the number that swells the ranks of the uneducated and socially maladjusted.

Whereas there are those children of migrant families who are ever on the move and are not receiving their full measure of education, we recommend that certain laws be made relative to said conditions during the term school is in session.

We further recommend that the church work cooperatively with the state in raising the compulsory school age from 16 years to 18 years, thereby keeping our children in school long enough to normally complete high school and also give them two years longer to grow into more mature men and women.

RESOLUTION

The committee on Economic and Social Relations offers resolution that the North Carolina Conference send to Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam a letter of commendation for the stand he took on the senate investigation committee's attack upon him.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE AREA SECRETARY

Bishop Love and Members of the Conference:

It is with joy that I make this brief statement concerning my work as administrative secretary of the Baltimore Area.

I accepted this appointment eighteen months ago without misgivings. I knew the man with whom I was to work. I knew the breadth of his vision, the height of his spiritual stature, and the depth of consecration of his life to the ministry of Jesus Christ. I knew the intense humanity of the man.

After a year and a half of working with him, my personal regard for him has increased a hundred-fold. Bishop Edgar Amos Love is by all standards of judgment a man.

My work, briefly defined, is that of administrative assistant to Bishop Love. Our offices in the Sharp Street Church Community House in Baltimore are on opposite sides of the hall, yet our work is, by its very nature, inseparably related, for my work is subsidiary to his. It is my responsibility to help him in promoting the program of Methodism in the four annual conferences of the Baltimore Area—the Delaware, East Tennessee, North Carolina and Washington Conferences.

I have given service in all four conferences on many occasions. I have been privileged to serve in each of the 18 districts which comprise these four conferences, taking the program of the church and of the Baltimore Area to districts representing approximately 90,000 Methodists.

In addition, following the line of my special interest, I have conducted institutes for choirs and seminars on worship for pastors on district or conference or larger city levels in each of the conferences.

Of course, I have filled numerous speaking engagements and attended many meetings of local, area, and national interest, either as proxy for Bishop Love, or in response to personal invitations and in the line of official duty.

Our office cooperated with the bishop's office and the Washington Conference Committee on Promotion and Advance in the promotion of the recent campaign in that conference for $100,000 for church extension within its own boundaries.

As sort of an extra-curricular activity, several months ago, I organized from among the Baltimore City churches a choir, whose radio and television ministry is dedicated to interpreting the message of the great hymns of the Christian Faith to church people. The ministry of this group in a short period of time has been miraculously helpful among our many listeners.

Of course, our chief promotional adventure is the publication of the Baltimore Area Messenger, for which we again solicit your support. I want here to express my personal appreciation to Bishop Love for the confidence he has imposed in me by entrusting to me full editorial responsibility for this journal. The Messenger should be read in every Baltimore Area home. We call upon pastors to help us achieve this goal.

I wish to thank all of you—ministers and laymen of the North Carolina Conference, for any part you may have played in the support of our area program, and I assure you of our readiness to serve you, when possible, on your call.

Daniel Lyman Ridout

BOARD OF EVANGELISM

We, your Conference Board of Evangelism, commend to all our churches and people the 1955 CHURCH ATTENDANCE CRUSADE—"GOD IS OUR STRENGTH—Attend Church Every Week, Pray Every Day." We regard it as a timely emphasis for our day.

Throughout America there is a resurgence of interest in religious faith. Everywhere men are groping for spiritual base. National leaders are constantly reminding us of our spiritual needs and calling us to a renewal of Faith in God. Shining through the armor of our military might and material strength is a deep and quiet nostalgia for faith—a faith in God which our founding fathers found to be an adequate and satisfying source of strength. Anyone who studies the present scene knows the Church has the largest opportunity in her history. Church membership is up. Church attendance is increasing. Religious books stand with amazing consistency in the best seller class. The motion picture industry increases its budgets for religious films. Secular magazines discover that articles on religion help sustain circulation. Advertising men write religious sentiment into their copy. Radio and television add more religious programs. Surely the day for which evangelical Christianity has longed and prayed IS HERE. 1955 looms in potential as Christendom's greatest year. The harvest is ripest now. We must not lose this God-given chance to save ourselves and our world. This is the psychological and opportune hour to challenge all Americans to flank and fortify our cherished freedoms with spiritual faith and religious zeal.

We have been happily aware of tremendous gains made for the Kingdom of Christ and Methodism through United Evangelistic Missions, Spiritual Life Missions, Christian Witness Missions, and this year's Church Attendance Crusade. We now believe the 1955 Church Attendance Crusade—"GOD IS OUR STRENGTH—Attend Church Every Week, Pray Every Day," will do much to strengthen these gains and further the cause of our Lord in His world. We therefore urge all our pastors, churches, and people to participate in this Crusade, thus making the emphasis a united concerted one throughout every District and Charge. Since the Crusade will be mono-directional there will be no reports to make unless the District so desires. Where at all possible we should cooperate with other religious groups, and civic, social and fraternal organizations in promoting this movement on a community-wide level, looking hopefully to a nation-wide cooperative endeavor.

We further urge our pastors and congregations to utilize visitation evangelism and the promotional procedures and materials suggested by the General Board of Evangelism. And in this connection we recommend that the North Carolina Conference accept this program as the specific work for this conference year. This includes United Evangelistic Mission, Spiritual Life Missions, Youth Christian Witness Missions, and daily Christian living undergirded by prayer.

We further recommend evangelistic clinics on sub-district and district levels for pastors, laymen and women, and youth, and request the service of a representative of the General Board of Evangelism in the directing of this movement on the Annual Conference level. We further recommend that all pastors will lead their churches in the participation of this movement, making the necessary preparation and cultivation for our most successful year in evangelistic endeavors. This will necessitate supplying themselves with survey and visitation materials which may be ordered from Tidings Department of the General Board of Evangelism, 1908 Grand Ave., Nashville 5, Tenn. We further recommend that mimeographed copies of this report be made and sent to each pastor within 30 days after the close of this conference, that each may have in hand this conference action that we may proceed as early as possible following this session of the conference.

Conference Board of Evangelism

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, the City School Board of Greensboro, North Carolina, was the first in the south to accept the decision of the Supreme Court outlawing segregation in public schools, and

Whereas, a member of this Conference, serving on this board, played an important role in this forward looking course of action, and

Whereas, this action set the example for democratic, law abiding and progressive educational procedures in the South—recognizing the dignity and worth of every human being as a child of God, and his unimpeachable equality under the law of the land, therefore, be it

Resolved, (1) That the North Carolina Conference, now in session, hail the action of the board as being historic, Christian, courageous, sobering and significant. It indicates the underlying sense of justice which pervades the hearts and minds of freedom loving people, when it is unobstructed by legal barriers. It further illustrated the strength of democracy in American life and its ability to function in areas of divergent opinions and traditional practices,

(2) That this conference send a letter to the City School Board of Greensboro, commending it for having taken such a forthright position, and

(3) That the pastors and laymen of this Conference cooperate with like-minded individuals and groups in their respective committees to see to it that the Christian approach be used in dealing with the practical factors involved.

Whereas we believe that all men are children of God. Whereas we believe that any law which is designed to segregate and discriminate against any of God's children is contrary to the Will of God and the teaching and example of the Lord Jesus Christ: therefore be it resolved that the revision of North Carolina Annual Conference go on record as supporting the recent Supreme Court's unanimous decision outlawing segregation in the public schools: that we call upon all Methodist and fellow Christians in Christ to provide the moral and spiritual atmosphere for the transition from a segregated school system to that of an integrated one.

James E. McCallum

North Carolina Annual Conference

We recommend that our Methodist Annual Conference reaffirm their support of the Negro Methodist colleges which are engaged in the highly important work of Christian education and are helping produce a trained Christian leadership. We want to point out that when the church supports these colleges, it is supporting institutions in which our Negro young people are freed to improve their status and to challenge segregation.

1. Seventy-three per cent of Negro students of college age live in the region in which these colleges are located.

2. Eighty per cent of all college students in America attend college in their own home states.

3. The region in which these colleges are located will need all of the educational resources that it now has.

Renewed support of Christian higher education at this critical stage of our history will not only improve the social positions of our Negro citizens, but it will give us young Negro leaders who will bring strong Christian influence into all areas of the American community. The best way to fortify the "Negro college" in these changing times is to make it a very good Christian college.

There is a direct connection, for example, between the quality of our Negro colleges and the type of support they have received in recent years. Those schools are growing experiments in racial brotherhood and are making a strong impact upon their local communities. They are helping, through their training of teachers and leaders, to recover and retain the Christian foundations in the public schools; for they take seriously the responsibility for the spiritual development of students.

In supporting a stronger relationship between Annual Conferences and our Negro colleges, we would stress the importance of a close working relationship among the Division of Educational Institutions of the General Board of Education, the Annual Conferences, and the colleges. The Division of Educational Institutions has a very important role in counseling with our conference Boards of Education and the colleges. The Division welcomes consultation in matters pertaining to the conference-college relationship. The Division of Educational Institutions is in close touch with the educational situation over the church and is the servant of each conference in promoting greater support for our colleges.

We urge the observance of Race Relations Sunday in every church.

We call attention to the importance of the conference committee on educational institutions, which under the leadership of the executive secretary and in cooperation with the board chairman will be responsible for studying and promoting church support in the conference. This is in line with the aims of Paragraph 1442 of The Discipline.

NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

MINISTERS RESERVE PENSION FUND

WHEREAS, in accordance with ¶¶1642-1657 of the Discipline of 1952, an Annual Conference may enter the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund of the Methodist Church by securing the required initial reserve fund, and

WHEREAS, it will be to the advantage of the North Carolina Annual Conference to enter the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund as soon as possible, and

WHEREAS, the Three Fold Reserve Pension Program as proposed by the Board of Pensions of the Methodist Church would assure a more adequate pension for all conference claimants, for all members presently in the effective relation, and for all ministers who may hereafter enter the membership of the North Carolina Annual Conference,

BE IT RESOLVED: That the North Carolina Annual Conference hereby accepts as its aim and goal the ultimate conversion of its pension program to that of the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund, as described in ¶¶1642 to 1657 of the Discipline, and as the immediate objective and first step toward the attainment of that goal the North Carolina Annual Conference hereby adopts the following program of action:

1. That the Conference hereby authorizes a Financial Campaign to secure the sum of $100,000 during a four-year period beginning with the conference year 1955-56, which shall be used, principal and interest, for the following Three Fold Reserve Pension Plan.

- (a) To pay annually the conference contribution of an amount equivalent to nine per cent of the average salary of the Conference (as defined in ¶1618 §6 of the pension code) on behalf of each and every qualified "New Entrant" member of the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund.
- (b) To pay annually the conference contribution of an amount equivalent to two per cent of the average salary of the Conference (as defined in ¶1618 §6 of the pension code) on behalf of each and every qualified "Previous Entrant" member of the Partial Reserve Pension Fund.
- (c) To provide annually for a period of approximately fifteen years the amount needed to increase the annuity rate by $2.00 per year of approved service given to the North Carolina Annual Conference; provided, however, that the service annuity payable by the Partial Reserve Pension Fund to a retired member thereof, or to the widow of a deceased member thereof, based upon contributions made by the North Carolina Annual Conference on behalf of such member, shall be treated as part of the annuity provided by the $2.00 increase in the annuity rate.

2. That the full amount of the Permanent Endowment Fund of the North Carolina Annual Conference, in the sum of $22,958.00, on deposit with the Board of Pensions of the Methodist Church, Incorporated in Illinois, be appropriated for the purposes of the aforesaid Three Fold Reserve Pension Plan of the North Carolina Annual Conference, in addition to such funds as may be secured through the Financial Campaign, and, furthermore,

That all funds which may now or hereafter be received from bequests, wills, estates and other gifts to the pension program of the North Carolina Conference shall be allocated to the Three Fold Reserve Pension Program of the Conference as the Conference may from time to time determine.

3. BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That the resident bishop be, and he is hereby, authorized and requested to appoint a Reserve Pension Campaign Committee of fifteen members, of whom seven shall be laymen, and of which the resident bishop shall be the Chairman, which shall be responsible for launching, conducting and managing the aforesaid Financial Campaign; and which shall have the power to set up such other District and Sub-District Committees as they may deem wise for the successful completion of the said Financial Campaign; and, furthermore,

That the abovementioned Committee may appropriate from the proceeds of the Financial Campaign a sum not to exceed $1,000, to defray the necessary costs of conducting the said Campaign.

4. That actual operation of the Three Fold Reserve Pension Program of the North Carolina Conference shall begin at such time as the Board of Pensions of the Methodist Church may determine that sufficient funds are in hand to assure the success of the program, and, furthermore

That any ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall be permitted to begin making contributions immediately to his income annuity account in the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund, in such amounts as are prescribed in ¶1646 §1 of the Discipline.

June, 1954

Whereas the 1954 General Conference passed an enabling act granting the privilege to any church that may be invited by any conference that may overlap its jurisdiction to become a member of that annual conference;

Be it resolved that the North Carolina Annual Conference grant the privilege to any church within its boundaries to join any annual conference within the Southeastern Jurisdiction after taking the steps outlined by the 1952 General Conference.

C. A. Barrett

Bishop Love and Members of the North Carolina Conference, in view of the fact that the church at Cornelius, North Carolina, has been abandoned, and since the property has deteriorated to such extent that city officials have condemned it, I recommend that the Conference declare the property abandoned and empower the Trustees to investigate same and offer the property for sale.

W. J. Cameron, District Superintendent

We recommend that Race Relations Sunday be observed in each local church in the North Carolina Annual Conference in or about the month of February.

Since our Conference Journal reflects credit or discredit on all members of the conference and the Methodist Church; Be it resolved that every important action of the conference be paraphrased.
